How to fill the pause while preparing the reading

While the user is waiting for useful information, there may appear a pause. It needs to be filled in so that:

- The user feels engaged in the process
- The user doesn't feel like their time is wasted
- The emotional contact becomes closer

The longest pause may occur at the beginning of the conversation when the expert makes the first reading.

Reply to the question

Suggest that the user responds to questions/tells you about something while you shuffle the deck.

If a user's question about an ex

- Dear, I'm shuffling my cards/building a natal chart, please tell me their name. Keep thinking about him. Oh, I can feel his energy.
- While I'm shuffling the deck of cards/building a natal chart, tell me your common place where you used to spend time.
- Darling, now close your eyes and imagine this person next to you. What is he? This will help me tune in to his energy.
- Darling, while I'm shuffling the cards/building a natal chart, please remember how you called each other in a relationship. This will help me tune in to a deeper connection between you.

If a user's question about a future partner

- Honey, take a few deep breaths in and out. Now try to imagine your ideal relationships.
- Dear, while I shuffle the deck/build a natal chart, please find the most comfortable and cozy place in your house and tell me about your favorite love story.

If a user's question about marriage

Dear, imagine your perfect wedding day, could you describe this precious dream? I'll tune into your love energy while I'm shuffling Tarot cards/building a natal chart.

Could you share with me, do you have a partner?

If a user's question about a financial situation, career, or money

- My dear, imagine yourself now as a child and tell me what you dream of becoming more than anything else. As I shuffle the cards/build a natal chart, it helps me feel connected to your inner desires.
- Could you tell me what do you do for a living? I'll tune into this energy flow.

If a user's question about a child

- Try now to direct all your thoughts about the child to the universe. Please tell me possible names (boy and girl) for the future child while I shuffle the cards.
- Now, please remember a moment of warmth and intimacy with your partner while I shuffle the cards. This will help me understand through the cards certain times when you may have children.

Creating a mystical atmosphere

Describe to the user what you are going to do, and add spiritualistic practices, and magical elements.

If a user's question about an ex/future partner/marriage

- While I'm shuffling the cards/building a natal chart, I ask you to count to five at your own pace. 5 is the number of love. I will draw a card for that number.
- Now I light a candle, put Rose Quartz next to me, and start shuffling the cards/building a natal chart. My movements are smooth, I tune in to your energy.

If a user's question about a financial situation, career, or money

- While I shuffle the deck of cards/build a natal chart, please pick up any banknote and focus your attention on it. This will help me feel your connection to wealth and money.
- Please take a coin in your hands now and rub it in your palms, and please share your feelings. This will help the cards feel your energy.

General ideas

- Darling, now I'm lighting special herbs that I brought from Nepal. Please try to focus on your question now. Relax, and put all unnecessary thoughts aside.
- Honey, please focus on what's bothering you the most right now. I rub my palms and raise them up towards the sun to receive the flow of energy from the cosmos. I feel strong impulses and that means...

Interactive

Involve the user in the reading process and make their participation an important part of using the tool.

Tarot

- Now I start shuffling the deck of cards. While I'm at it, tell me STOP three times so I can draw the correct cards.
- I'll shuffle my cards when you're ready, count out loud from 1 to 3, and I'll draw three cards from the deck for each count.

Show your expertise

While you are entering data to build a natal chart, transit, or compatibility, you can fill in the pause with an expert opinion or explanation of the tool.

- And so dear... Now I'm looking at the main location of the planets in different houses in your natal chart. I see quite interesting aspects that have an impact on your personality and behavior.
- In order to better understand the key aspects of your compatibility with your partner, now I superimpose your natal charts on top of each other to see the intersection of key points.
